

Honoring First nations from Turtle Island to Palestine through Arts and Activism

The SCSU Women's & Gender Studies Program, Jewish Voice For Peace New Haven and the Palestine Museum US invite you to join us honoring the history and courage of indigenous peoples and connecting the dots between all those resisting ongoing occupation and colonization.

Jennifer Kreisberg, Tuscarora mother, singer, composer, producer, teacher, and activist with

Ali El-Issa,

Palestinian promotor of indigenous people's rights

Sunday, October 13, 2019

12:00 - 1:30PM

Palestine Museum US

1764 Litchfield Turnpike

Woodbridge, CT 06525

Monday, October 14, 2019

6:00 - 7:30PM

Souther CT State University

Engleman Hall (A 107)

501 Crescent St

New Haven, CT 06515